

Overview of Texts – Pre-school

Spring Term One 2022/23	Spring Term Two 2022/23	Summer Term One 2022/23	Summer Term Two 2022/23	Autumn Term One 2023/24	Autumn Term Two 2023/24	Spring Term One 2023/24	Spring Term Two 2023/24	Summer Term One 2023/24	Summer Term Two 2023/24
 Whatever Next! By Jill Murphey	 The Tiger who came to Tea By Judith Kerr	 Oliver's Vegetables By Vivienne French	 Titch By Pat Hutchins	 Ruby's Worry By Tom Percival	 Brown Bear, Brown Bear, What Do You See? By Eric Carle	 Mrs Mopple's Washing Line By Anita Hewitt	 The Gruffalo's Child By Julia Donaldson	 Jaspers Beanstalk By Nick Butterworth	 Over on the Farm By Christopher Gunson
Use of positional language. Interest in the moon/space and rockets.	Making sandwiches – children spreading butter, choosing a filling. Cutting into different shapes. Baking cakes – measure, cause and effect.	Planting seeds. Look at the parts of a plant. Explore different vegetables.	Observe growth and change. Talk about families.	Starting pre-school and returning to pre-school after the summer. Talk about feelings.	Explore colour – look at shades, mixing two colours together. Autumn and changing colours within the environment.	Explore the weather. Basic Forces – Use of a Kite/Ribbons. Use of Pegs (Finger muscle strength)	Look at light and shadow. Talk about size. Textures and descriptive vocabulary. Use of puppets to retell the story.	Growing – Planting seeds – consider what a seed needs to grow. Basic measure. Observe and talk about change.	Counting in order, allocating an amount, one to one correspondence. Talk about animal babies. Play with animal sounds. Rhyming. Visit to Staunton Country Park.
Twinkle, Twinkle, Little Star	I'm a Little Teapot	Five Little Peas	Heads, Shoulders, Knees and Toes	If you're happy and you know it.	I can sing a Rainbow. (Use of Makaton signs for each colour)	The North wind does blow	Three Blind Mice.	I'll plant a little seed	Baa Baa Black sheep